MACDONALD COLLEGE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

Dedicated to those who served in

WORLD WAR II

1939-1945

McGill
University

Macdonald
College

This Book of Remembrance bears worthy testimony to the memories of those of Macdonald College who gave everything in order that the spirit of free education in a free country should survive.

Although their names are emblazoned on these pages, which may fade with the years, their spirit and sacrifice is an undying heritage of the College for evermore.

The tradition of unselfish sacrifice which was displayed is an inspiration to all who may follow.

We must, all of us, strive with all our spirit to be worthy of their example in the years to come.

Alexander of Tunis
J. M.

Rideau Hall,
August, 1947

The names of the men and women are recorded in two separate sections.

Names which were received too late to be included in regular sequence appear on the last page.
